

Flux Projects
2010 Call for FLUX Affiliated Projects

Deadline for Submission: August 13, 2010

Overview:

Flux Projects is accepting a second round of proposals for FLUX, our one-night event in Castleberry Hill, Friday, October 1, 2010. From these submissions a committee will select Affiliated Projects. These projects will be sanctioned as official FLUX projects. They will be included in marketing and promotional materials, such as the event map and Flux Project website, and will receive signage and other benefits the evening of the event. Other than this support, artists will not receive a commission.

These projects can be performances or visual art, broadly conceived, and their duration will vary depending upon the nature of the work. In general, we are interested in works that are artistically compelling both aesthetically and conceptually, creative in their approach to public space and human interaction, and that address a broad audience.

Eligibility:

Any artist, artist team, creative collaborative, or curator (referred to collectively as Artists from here forward) may submit projects. Individual artists or at least one team member must be 18 years of age.

Proposed projects:

- Can focus on any form of visual art or performance, broadly conceived, including sound installations
- Can range in duration as appropriate to the particular work

Sites:

Artists with a specific Castleberry Hill location in mind should include that request in their submission. Flux Projects will make final determination of the site and secure permission from property owners.

Budget:

Artists selected for Affiliate Projects will not receive financial support. They will receive marketing and promotional support, including signage and other benefits the evening of the event.

To Submit:

E-mail proposals to info@fluxprojects.org.

Materials must be received by 5:00 p.m., Friday, August 13th. Proposals will be reviewed periodically as they are received. Artists are encouraged to submit their proposals as soon as possible.

Submissions must include:

1. Name and contact information, including address, telephone number, e-mail, and website
2. One-page concept statement for the proposed project, which should include technical details, material selection, and any additional pertinent information
3. Current resume (include individual resumes for all team members) (Word or pdf format)
4. Samples of Artist's work or the proposed project: up to three digital images (jpg or PowerPoint, 640 x 480 – 72 dpi) and/or two audio or video samples (mov, mpeg, or avi, no longer than 3 minutes each)

Selection Criteria:

- Artistic merit
- Accessibility to a public audience
- Appropriateness for the event
- Feasibility of construction
- Public safety/welfare

Notification:

Selected artists will be notified by August 27th.

In addition, Artist agrees:

- That identifying the project's needs, as well as planning and implementing it, is the responsibility of the Artist
- To refine artistic concepts and designs in conversation with Flux Projects and its consultants, if needed
- To deliver, install, and remove the artwork
- To assume responsibility to insure the work
- To provide ongoing updates to Flux Projects staff
- To assign to Flux Projects the right to photograph or videotape work completed as part of this project for publicity, grant writing, and promotional purposes
- That entry constitutes understanding and agreement with the conditions outlined in this Call for Proposal

About Flux Projects:

Flux Projects supports artists in creating innovative temporary public art throughout Atlanta. The organization produces new platforms for artistic experimentation that engage a broad audience in their daily lives, beyond the walls of traditional arts venues. We challenge artists to make exceptional, surprising work that inspires Atlanta and fosters an awareness of the richness and diversity of the city's creative culture.
